

States of Matter Rubric

Name: _____

Date: _____

Criteria	3	2	1
Science Content	Video includes the three states of matter, clearly explains how each state of matter differs, includes demonstration and information about the molecules, and uses correct scientific vocabulary.	Video includes the three states of matter, explains how each state of matters differs, includes information about the molecules, and uses correct scientific vocabulary.	Video includes the three states fo matter, partially explains how each state of matter differs, includes limited information about the molecules, and uses some correct scientific vocabulary.
Use of Technology	Filming, audio, and animation are well organized and flow. The movie is interesting and helps the viewer better understand the topic.	Filming, audio, and animation are organized and flow fairly well. The movie helps the viewer better understand the topic.	Filming, audio, and animation are not organized and lack flow. Some of the effects of the movie distract the viewer.

Teacher comments: _____
